

GCELL:

“Minimizing disagreements and maximizing academics”

While imparting professional education, we take utmost care that students and other stakeholders feel the comfort in the campus. We at BGC practice transparency, justice so that stakeholders are not suffered. Campus observes high moral and ethical practices. Our BGC, Grievances Redressal Mechanisms Committee efficiently addresses General grievances, Ragging issues, Women issues and SC/ST issues on the campus, as per guidelines of AICTE, MRSPTU University & Govt. of Punjab. There are four sections in the GRM. Grievances Redressal Committee resolves issues regarding infrastructure, functioning or quarrels etc. Anti Ragging Committee, where students can lodge the complaint related to ragging and are handled as per Anti Ragging rules laid by government. Internal Complaints Committee for Women, where female can lodge the complaint and get their problem solved. It is set up as per the directives of the Supreme Court of India (Vishakha Guidelines), to uphold the dignity of women at work place. Committee for SC/ ST looks after complaints as per government act no.33 of 1989. Each committee is coordinated by staff member of institute.
